INSIDE TAKE
RODRIGO ALBIR:
Studio RODA

"In crafting our design vision, we draw inspiration from a rich tapestry of artistic movements, cinema, fashion and various design eras. Books serve as my primary wellspring of creative influence. During this pivotal design phase, we meticulously curate the visual narrative that underpins each project, ensuring a seamless and cohesive experience. The choice of design periods is a deliberate process, tailored to the unique characteristics of the site, the preferences of our clients, and the compelling story we aim to convey."
